

Digital Guide: Madrid

---

Historic Monuments

---

Palace Real

The Palace Real is the official residence of the royal family of Spain; however, the royal family doesn't actually live here anymore. Instead, this palace is used for ceremonies and other special events.

Boasting a large size of 135,000 meters and 3148 rooms, the Palace Real is the largest palace in Western Europe – and one of the largest in the world!

Debod Temple

The Debod Temple is from ancient Egypt. It is located to the west of the Plaza of Spain and next to the Painter Rosales walkway. The temple is about 2200 years old and was a gift directly from Egypt to Spain. The gift was a “thank you gift” to the Spanish for their aid in saving the temples of Nubia.

Popular Attractions

---

Park Retiro

Park Retiro is both a historic garden and public park. It's considered to be one of the main tourist attractions of Madrid; it houses numerous architectural, sculptural, and other unique landscape stemming from the 17th to the 21st centuries. This garden has influences from a multitude of different time periods like Alfonso XII, the Crystal Palace, Felipe IV, and even the hermitage of San Pelayo and San Isidoro.

Santiago Bernabéu Stadium

This stadium is a sports stadium owned by the Real Madrid CF Club. Located in the Paseo de la Castellana in the Chamartín District of Spain, it was inaugurated on December 14, 1947. Additionally, this stadium can hold up to 81,044 spectators. The stadium is actually rated by the UEFA with the highest distinction: “elite stadium.”

Popular Restaurants

---

Lateral

Lateral's unique and traditional history begins with opening back in 1997. Their main quest is to be able to bring traditional foods with a modern twist. Their menu hosts a variety of individual skewers with other plates to share. Additionally, while creating the mixture of traditional and modern recipes, Lateral changes their menu with different foods according to the seasons!

La Buha

Taberna Moderna (Modern Tavern) is known for its great location and beautiful decorations. The restaurant hides inside an amazing cave where many locals will host celebrations and other events. Besides being located next to one of the most historic neighborhoods in Madrid, La Latina, they are also known for stuffed tortillas, tapas, and other Mediterranean dishes.

Popular Restaurants

---

Casa Lucio (House Lucio)

Casa Lucio boasts one of the last innkeepers of Madrid, Lucio Blazques. Since 1974, Casa Lucio has been a place to eat for locals and newcomers. Known for its more traditional recipes like their star eggs and stew, Casa Lucio continues to maintain a sense of nostalgia in their food.

Tierra Burrito Bar

The best burritos, tacos, nachos, and margaritas in Madrid you'll ever find. Their motto is that you must know every ingredient in your food and that a healthy diet is the most important aspect of life.

With that, all the ingredients at Tierra Burrito Bar are fresh from local markets of vegetables, fruits, and other meats.

Transportation

---

Tourist Bus (Madrid City Tour)

The Madrid City Tour Bus is one of the most simple and comfortable ways to get around the city. All you have to do is buy one ticket that is already valid for 1 to 2 days, ride the bus, put the given headphones to follow the audioguide, and then just enjoy the ride! This bus will hit every monuments, park, and popular attraction in Madrid! With the ease of getting off whenever you want, it is also just as easy to get back on!

Transportation

Ubers and taxis are abundant in the city.

Becheckin
info@becheckin.com

955278323 - 627074173

