

Rapid Digital Guide: Valencia

Valencia: discover this city's unique attractions and beautiful city

Popular Attractions

The City of Art and Science

This city is an architectural, cultural, and entertainment complex in Valencia. It is located at the end of the old riverbed of the Turia River. In 2007, this city was one of the winners of the 12 Treasures of Spain contest.

The Silk Market (La Lonja de la Seda)

This monument is a masterpiece of the Valencian Civil Gothic era that's located in the historical center of Valencia. This monument was built between 1482 and 1548, constituting an emblematic building of the Valencian Golden Age (15th century). This building was prestigiously created by the Valencian bourgeoisie.

Popular Attractions

Nature Park of Albufera

This nature park was officially named a park on by the people of Valencia on July 23, 1986. This beautiful park is located about 10 km to the south of the city of Valencia; it comprises of breathtaking landscapes, trees, rivers, and more. The Albufera itself largely shapes the nature and environment of this park.

Miguelete

This tower is the belfry tower of the Cathedral of Valencia. The construction of the tower started at 1381 and finished in 1429. This tower has details from the Valencian Gothic era and has a 51 meter height to the terrace. The tower is shaped like an octagonal prism and has 207 steps. Due to its complexity and long years of construction, its construction was influenced by multiple various artisans.

Popular Restaurants

Mercatbar

In 2010, the chef Quiqui Dacosta opened his first restaurant in Valencia, Mercatbar. However, Mercatbar was different to all other restaurant, its mixture of being a restaurant and bar proved it to be more popular than any other establishment. Now, you can enjoy tapas with fun, refreshing drinks at their terrace or comfortable tables.

La Pizca de Sal

This restaurant is located next to the famous Quart Tower in the district of Carmen. In the restaurant, enjoy your food on a large terrace overlooking the beautiful city and the Quart Tower. The food at La Pizca is traditional with a modern twist. We highly recommend the rice with chicken and pumpkin; this dish has a savory but sweet touch.

Popular Restaurants

Ruzanuvol Craft Beer and Food

If you're looking for to enjoy a few beers and food, this is your place. The Ruzanuvol Artisanal Brewery is located in the Valencian District of Russafa. This brewery specializes in Artisan Italian beer. The dishes here include Mediterranean food, Italian food, tapas, and other raw fish imported directly from Italy.

Casa Carmela (House Carmela)

Sitting on Villa Carmen, this restaurant looks like a typical beach house in Valencia. The Belenguer Family, the owners, meant for this restaurant to be a house and a guesthouse in the beginning of the 20th century. But after years of inviting guests, the family turned it into a restaurant. All the type of paella - especially the chicken and duck - are the classic dishes of Casa Carmela.

Transportation

Tourist Bus (Valencia Bus Touristic)

Visit all the wonderful destinations and attraction of Valencia in just 24 hours! On this bus you can travel at your pace and visit every bus stop that seems most interesting. Due to the variety of locations and places to visit, there is never a boring place to stop and look around at! The beauty of the City Sightseeing bus is that you can hop-on and hop-off whenever you want.

Transportation

Ubers and taxis are available at your leisure the city.

Becheckin

info@becheckin.com

955278323 - 627074173