1: La Sagrada Familia

This church is the unfinished masterpiece of world renowned architect Antonio Gaudí and is the most visited site in Barcelona. No other church in the world can compare to the marvelously designed interior and exterior of La Sagrada Familia. When visiting this church we recommend that you arrive right when they open, because lines tend to be long and they only sell a certain number of tickets each day.

2: Park Güell

Park Güell, situated at the highest point in Barcelona, is another masterpiece of Antonio Gaudí's. This park was created in the naturalist style. The sculptures, fountains, and buildings were created in a wavy style that was inspired by nature. This park is one of the most beautiful in the world, and the best way to enjoy it is to wander aimlessly through the park and discover the incredible sites hidden inside, like the Sala Hipóstila.
